

World Famed Korean Musician To Conduct Symphony Dec. 4

A chance for qualified singers and instrumentalists of the area to perform under the direction of Eakty Ahn, noted Korean composer, conductor and former protege and colleague of the late Richard Strauss, is being offered by the board of directors of the Torrance South Bay Civic Symphony, its director, Elyse Aehle, announced this week.

Maestro Ahn, who has just completed a tour of Brazil and Argentina, will arrive in Palos Verdes Estates Sunday for a two-week visit, and will be guest conductor of the Civic Symphony in concert on Dec. 4 at the Redondo High School auditorium, Miss Aehle said.

INVITATION to area musicians to perform with the noted conductor does not carry an obligation to join the Civic Symphony, she emphasized.

Preparatory rehearsals of the orchestra will be under the direction of Ahn.

For the past 10 years, Ahn has been musical director and conductor of the Mallorca Symphony at Palma, Spain. He was a protege and colleague of the late Richard Strauss for a period of 12 years in Munich and Vienna, often conducting such Strauss masterpieces as "Don Juan," "Rosenkavalier," "Death and Transfiguration," and "Till Eulenspiegel." He often alternated on the same program with Strauss.

HE HAS since conducted many important American, European, and Oriental symphony orchestras, including those in Berlin, Vienna, Paris, Rome, Budapest, Mexico, and in Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Denver, and Hawaii. He is also the composer of the national anthem of Korea.

During the Dec. 4 concert, Ahn will conduct compositions of Strauss, Beethoven, and his own "Korea."

Those interested in joining the symphony for this occasion may contact Miss Aehle at FR 5-2744.

County Orders Suit to Acquire Torrance Site

Condemnation of one and one-quarter acres of land for construction of the Torrance Area Office of the Probation Department was authorized Tuesday by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. The site, according to Supervisor Burton W. Chace, is located on the north side of Torrance Blvd. approximately midway between Amle Ave. and Madrona Ave. and is owned by Mrs. Mary D. Laski.

The Department of Real Estate Management estimated the value of the property at $54,250 and an offer to purchase the site for $58,000 was made to the owner who rejected it, holding that the land is worth $82,000.

As a result, condemnation proceedings will be filed immediately by County Counsel Harold W. Kennedy to acquire title of the property for the Probation Department.

The Torrance Area Office is presently located in the Compton County Building. It is hoped that the Torrance Office will be completed by Spring of 1963, Chace said.

Funds for acquisition of the property are provided in the 1960-61 budget. Cost of the building is estimated at $450,000.

NOTED CONDUCTORS . . . The late Richard Strauss and his colleague, Eakty Ahn, are shown here in picture made when the two were combining talents to lead some of the world's greatest symphony orchestras. Ahn will lead the Torrance-South Bay Symphony in concert here on Dec. 4.

SPEAKER . . . Larry Macary, Torrance High School instructor, spoke Thursday night to members of the Orange County Art Assn. on contemporary Danish arts and crafts. Macary, director of the Fine Arts Department at Torrance High, is director of the American Exhibition of the American European Cultural Exchange Program. Macary spent three months making an art tour of Europe last summer.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS

BEEF . . . values in stews, pot roasts, steaks, and our stand by, ground meat.

PORK more plentiful. Loin will be showing up as a "special" in some meat departments. Place a (4 to 5 pound) Loin of Pork, fat side up, in shallow roasting pan. Season with salt and pepper and roast in a 325°F. oven for 30 to 35 minutes per pound, or until meat thermometer reads 185°F. Garnish with fresh or canned fruit halves filled with Cranberry-Orange Relish.

Wash and grind medium fine 1 pound (4 cups) raw cranberries, 1 unpeeled orange (seeded). Stir in 2 cups sugar. Let stand a few hours before serving. Makes 2 pints. This is fine eating! (Tremendous crop of cranberries this year)

VEAL . . . Supply is light; cubed steak and roast.

POULTRY. Our traditional holiday bird, Turkey, will be in ample supply. If you want a whole large turkey or small fryer-roaster, your order can be filled. Long Island Duck, Geese and Chicken can also be planned for the menu.

EGGS. Prices are firm on all grades.

FRESH OYSTERS are showing up in the markets. For the gourmets serve oyster stuffing at Thanksgiving.

(Allow about 1 cup stuffing for each pound of ready-to-cook poultry)

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 small onion, finely chopped
- 1/4 cup finely chopped celery
- 2 1/2 cups small, dry bread cubes
- 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1/8 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 12 ounces fresh oysters (chopped)

Melt butter or margarine in skillet, saute onions and celery; add bread cubes; saute few minutes; blend seasoning and add oysters; toss with fork. Pack lightly into prepared pocket. (Remember, don't stuff the holiday bird the day before. Do wait to put your stuffing together and stuff the bird just before roasting . . . it's the safe way)
